Mayor Tom Barrett issued the following statement regarding the inauguration of Governor Walker:

“I congratulate Governor Walker and all the new and returning legislators and constitutional officers. When we met last month, Governor Walker and I agreed that open lines of communication and cooperation will be necessary to grow Milwaukee’s economy, improve our schools and maintain our infrastructure. I am committed to moving Milwaukee forward and am hopeful that by working with Governor Walker, his Cabinet and the Legislature that my commitment will be shared. I wish Governor Walker and the legislature the best and I look forward to getting to work.”
